

Your teacher will be sharing three pictures from What's Going on in this Picture? First, each student will get analytical about each photograph. Your critical thinking skills will be at work as well as your ability to support claims with evidence.

What's Going on in this Picture?

Individually, students will write an analytical claim (topic sentence). Then, create three bullet points below for each picture.

With partners, you will discuss and lastly, each will be revealed.
