

DIRECTIONS: Please take the time to actually read through these prior to writing!

WRITE A TWO PARAGRAPH REFLECTION BELOW.

1. ANALYSIS: One paragraph that reflects on the writer's style
 - Think about the techniques the writer used -typically you'll be asked to choose TWO points of analysis to explore based upon your reading/annotations. This week, we will give you two to do: word choice (diction) and quality of evidence. If you'd like to choose a different point of analysis, you may do so.
 - Use evidence from the text and discuss what you noticed about the two techniques listed above. Work on blending and attributing your quotes!
 - Avoid 1st person pronouns (I, me, my).
 - THIS IS THE IMPORTANT PART! Work on insightful elaborations explain WHY the writer is using this technique. What layer of meaning does it add specifically? Try to write at least two sentences where you discuss the evidence you provided specifically.
2. RESPONSE: One paragraph that reflects the reader's thoughts on the content of the article.
 - I want your opinion here on the topic of the advice given, not on how the article was written.
 - It is ok to use first person pronouns in this paragraph!
